Above and Beyond

Session 1 Friday February 9 Presenter: Anne Henderson Partner in AWS Legal

Practising law for 30 years.

I enjoy communicating with the client and finding a solution to issues that arise," she says. "There are legal documents that older clients should have in place as a bare minimum and many clients simply do not know where to start. Our role is to guide them through that process..She believes strong communication and service, tailored to the individual client, are an important part of delivering quality legal support."I am there to make individual clients satisfied, problem solve their issues and reach a solution"

Session 2 Friday February 16 Presenter: Stacey Muir Navigating the System

A Registered Social Worker at Southland Hospital. I have been working with people with a multitude of health issues and assisting them and their families to navigate the hospital system including accessing supports and wading through the legal issues that can sometimes arise when a person is no longer able to make decisions for themselves.

Session 3 Friday February 23 Presenter: Sharron Hanley Managing Director

Sharron started with Macdonald & Weston in December of 2012. Sharron had a lot of experience in Australia in Funeral services, and believes the most important part of her job is listening & communicating. In particular at the first meeting where the arrangements are made. "Having time to listen, not hurrying anyone, is so important in understanding what family's needs are."

Session 4 Friday March 3 Presenter: Panel of Four

Ngaire Cameron Funeral Celebrant

Remembering, Celebrating and Honouring your loved one.

Anneke Cambell - Reflections

Picture caskets offer a bespoke service to create a unique art piece celebrating the life of your loved one.

Ian Trainor -- Maiden Stone

A new Monumental Mason to help you make that lasting memory.

Caroline Loo Grief and Loss Centre.

We offer support for people living with loss and grief of any sort:- including grief from bereavement, separation, illness, isolation and other life changes.
