

INVITATION

U3A Southland have kindly invited us to join them on a visit to the

Bluff Maritime Museum
On Friday September 12

Either, make your own way there (be there by 2p.m.) or meet at 1.30p.m. at

Richmond Grove Church

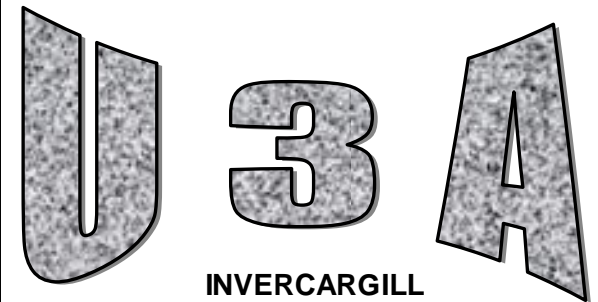

at the corner of Yarrow and Margaret Streets to arrange car pooling.

There will be a $3.00 charge at the museum. Later you will go to the

Greenhills Hall

where you will be guests at afternoon tea, catered by U3A Southland.

The historic church will also be open. You might consider a small donation.

Maritime Matters

The sea has always played an important part in the development of Southland. In this series we reflect on a number of different aspects of our maritime heritage.

Session 1 Friday July 25
Presenter: Rachael Egerton.

Rachael, a technical adviser from the Department of Conservation, will talk about her work as a conservator of historic sites.

Session 2 Friday August 1
Presenter: Meri Leask.

Meri Leask, the Southland Times' Southlander of the Year for 2013, has been the voice of Bluff Marine Radio since 1980. Meri will talk about some of her experiences.

Note: See the other side of this brochure for an opportunity to visit Bluff Maritime Museum on Friday September 12.
