THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE IN ART

Presenter:

Professor Terence Doyle

The "History of Medicine in Art" looks at the way medicine has been viewed in art from prehistory to the modern period. Terence is Professor of Medicine at the University of Otago and Consultant Doctor at Dunedin Hospital Radiology Department. He has degrees in Classics and English in addition to Medicine. He has taught Humanities as well as Medicine to students throughout the medical course.

His main academic interest is History of Medicine. He organises a monthly History of Medicine lecture series in Dunedin.
